A DANCE FOR LIFE: A Charity Night for ^{25 Jahre} PINK RIBBON

Dear Ball Guests,
Esteemed Colleagues,

Welcome to a very special anniversary. Today we are celebrating not only the 75th Vienna Doctors' Ball, but also 25 years of Pink Ribbon in Austria – and, taken together, 100 years of commitment to health, hope and solidarity in action.

For 75 years, the Vienna Doctors' Ball has stood for elegance, socialising and solidarity. Since 2017, it has combined this tradition year after year with a clear charitable mission. Thanks to the tremendous support of our guests and partners, we have already been able to support numerous charitable organisations: most recently with a record donation of 136,240 euros to CliniClowns Austria. Today, we are continuing this chapter and dedicating the net proceeds from the anniversary ball to the Pink Ribbon campaign run by Cancer Aid Vienna.

THE DOCTORS' BALL GOES PINK

The Pink Ribbon is far more than just a symbol. For 25 years, Pink Ribbon in Austria has stood for awareness, prevention and practical support for people with breast cancer and their families. It offers encouragement, instils confidence and reminds us how important solidarity is in difficult times. With every ticket sold, every donation made and every pink ribbon worn, we are sending a clear message together today: a message of humanity, health literacy and the certainty that no one has to walk this path alone.

When the Hofburg is lit up in pink this evening, that colour represents far more than just festive decoration. It stands for hope, courage and solidarity. It reminds us that good health is not something to be taken for granted, and that solidarity begins when we take responsibility for one another.

Look forward to an evening full of music, dancing and dazzling moments, all linked by a common theme: let yourself be enchanted by a festive opening, an extraordinary midnight performance and a varied programme.

Under the theme 'A Dance for Life - a Charity Night for Pink Ribbon', we would like to dance, celebrate and help together. Let's make the 75th Vienna Doctors' Ball an anniversary celebration that touches hearts, inspires hope and will be remembered for a long time to come.

We wish you an unforgettable evening at the ball!

Sabine Delizia Egger discovered her passion for art while she was still a student at the University of Innsbruck. Since then, in addition to her work as a creative director, she has been working as a freelance Pop Art artist in her studio in the Tyrolean mountains. There, she creates funny, cheerful Pop Art cows and floral portraits of women inspired by Art Nouveau. Her artistic career has been deeply influenced by her background in neurobiology and by studies conducted by the WHO and the University of Vienna on the topic of "Art & Health." She created the sketch for her work "Magnolia" in the charming Hofgarten in Innsbruck. She then digitally designed the background of the canvases, incorporating her neuroscientific expertise as well as mandala elements. At the heart of the work is the hand-painted portrait featuring magnolia blossoms, which she created on canvas in her studio using a colorful, expressive acrylic technique.

"Art Meets Neurobiology": Our Grand Staircase and Ball Donation in This Big Anniversary Year!

True to the motto "Art that makes you smile", the Tyrolean Pop Art artist Mag. Sabine-Delizia Egger creates expressive portraits using acrylics in her studio near Innsbruck. Thanks to her training as a neurobiologist, each of her works reflects a deep understanding of colour compositions, harmonious designs and their effect on the human brain. This results in colourful Pop Art works that lift the spirits and promote the release of 'happiness hormones' (such as dopamine, serotonin and endorphins).

The Tyrolean Pop Art artist's contribution to this big anniversary year!

Not only does her painting 'Magnolia' adorn our grand staircase, but you'll also take a piece of the artwork home with you when you get your ball donation.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN THE ARTIST AND HER WORKS? COME AND MEET HER IN PERSON AT THE 75TH DOCTORS' BALL AT THE DELIZIA ART GALLERY

VIENNA MEDICAL DOCTORS' BALL GOES CHARITY

A distinctive feature of the Vienna Doctors' Ball is its traditionally strong charitable focus. Since 2017, the net proceeds have been donated to a charitable organisation. Most recently, in 2026, 136,240 euros were donated to CliniClowns Austria.

At the 75th Doctors' Ball, the net proceeds will go to the Pink Ribbon campaign run by Cancer Aid Vienna, which celebrates its 25th anniversary in 2027. Together, we are celebrating 100 years of commitment to health, education, and solidarity.
